Subject: Call for mutual assistance tonight

Flag: Follow up

Chief Sloly and Steve,

There is an escalating level of threat being felt on Centretown streets and increasing activity on the periphery of the protest. There is fuel being brought into the core and language in trucker channels is becoming increasingly violent. Residents are terrified. We are not confident in police ability to protect our residential neighbourhoods.

In an effort to protect residents, we are going to issue a call this evening at 6 for residents to be present on the streets of Centertown until this is over. The focus is absolutely on mutual aid and simple strength in numbers. We do not want confrontation but need an alternative to counter-protest. The stress will be on providing people with non-confrontational assistance.
